

Potential Donors:

Thank you for considering the donation of books or periodicals to the Lewis D. Cannell Library at Clark College. Donations are gratefully accepted, with the understanding that they may or may not be added to the permanent collection. Materials not added to the permanent collection will be disposed in accordance with state law.

We cannot assign a cash value to your donation, but the Clark College Foundation will send you an acknowledgment of your gift if you will leave your name and address.

Again, thank you for considering Clark College Libraries.

Sincerely,

Michael A. Brown
